QUASI-JUDICIAL HEARINGS

Explanation of Quasi-Judicial Hearings

Quasi-judicial decisions arise in a variety of local government settings. In Zebulon, members of the Town's Board of Commissioners hold quasi-judicial hearings for special use permits as required by state law. During a quasi-judicial hearing, the Boards must hold an evidentiary hearing based solely on written and oral evidence presented by witnesses testifying under oath and subject to cross-examination. The quasi-judicial hearings do not involve setting new policies, but rather the application of previously adopted policies to the parties involved. Unlike legislative decisions (like rezonings), where the Board's actively seek the public's input and opinion concerning the advisability of the matter before the Boards, state law and constitutional considerations require that a quasi-judicial decision must be based solely on the evidence presented and cannot be based on the Board's or witnesses' unsubstantiated opinions. Put differently, a quasi-judicial decision is one that requires the Board members to find facts and apply the standards set forth in the Town's ordinance to a specific situation.

Evidence Required

There must be "substantial, competent, and material evidence" in the record to support each factual determination; the findings cannot be based on conjecture or assumptions. North Carolina General Statutes (NCGS) §160A-393 prohibits a person from giving opinions about scientific, technical or other specialized subjects unless the person, by knowledge, skill, experience, training or education, is in fact an expert on the subject. NCGS §160A-393 specially prohibits opinions that "the use of property in a particular way would affect the value of other properties" or opinions that "the increase in vehicular traffic resulting from a proposed development would pose a danger to the public safety" unless the witness is an expert on the subject.

Burden

The applicant will bear the burden of presenting evidence sufficient to enable the Board of Commissioners to make the findings of fact required the Zebulon Code of Ordinances. Those in opposition to the issuance of the special use permit bear the burden of presenting evidence that a required standard will not be met. The findings of fact required by the Zebulon Unified Development Ordinance are as follows:

1. Will not materially endanger the public health or safety if located where proposed;
2. Complies with all required standards, conditions, and specifications of this Ordinance, including Article 4: Uses;
3. Will not substantially injure the value of the abutting land, or the special use is a public necessity;
4. Will be in harmony with the area in which it is to be located;
5. Is in general conformity with the Town's adopted policy guidance; and
6. Includes a concept plan that accurately depicts the proposed use's configuration.

Ex-Parte Communication

In all quasi-judicial hearings, all rulings must be based only upon the evidence in the record. Any direct or indirect communication (verbal, written, electronic or graphic) between a Board member and a proponent, opponent, or other interested party received outside of the record is considered "ex-parte communication". Board members should not receive evidence or argument on a pending quasi-judicial matter outside of the official public hearing on the matter. Note that this is different from a legislative matter before the Board, in which case Board members are free to discuss legislative matters with citizens at any time. It is inappropriate for the Board member to discuss or read correspondence concerning the quasi-judicial matter outside of the public hearing. Please do not approach or attempt to communicate with a Board member about the pending special use permit outside the public hearing; doing so may provide legal grounds for a court to overturn the Board's decision.

Oaths

Those offering testimony are put under oath. If a witness has religious objections to taking an oath, he or she may affirm rather than swear an oath.

Questions about Quasi-Judicial Proceedings

If you have any questions about the applicable procedures, please contact Assistant Planning Director Meade Bradshaw at (919) 823-1809 or at mbradshaw@TownOfZebulon.Org.
