9.3.2. MEASUREMENTS, GENERALLY

A. STRAIGHT LINES

Unless otherwise stated in this Ordinance, distances specified in this Ordinance are to be measured as the length of an imaginary straight line joining two points.

B. ROUNDING

All calculations that result in a fractional unit or part of a whole number, the number shall be rounded up to the next highest whole number, unless otherwise provided in this section or elsewhere in this Ordinance.

C. IRREGULAR SHAPES

In cases where an irregular shape complicates the application of these standards, the Planning Director shall determine the applicable dimensional, setback, or bulk standards in accordance with the standards in this section and Section 2.2.12, Interpretation.

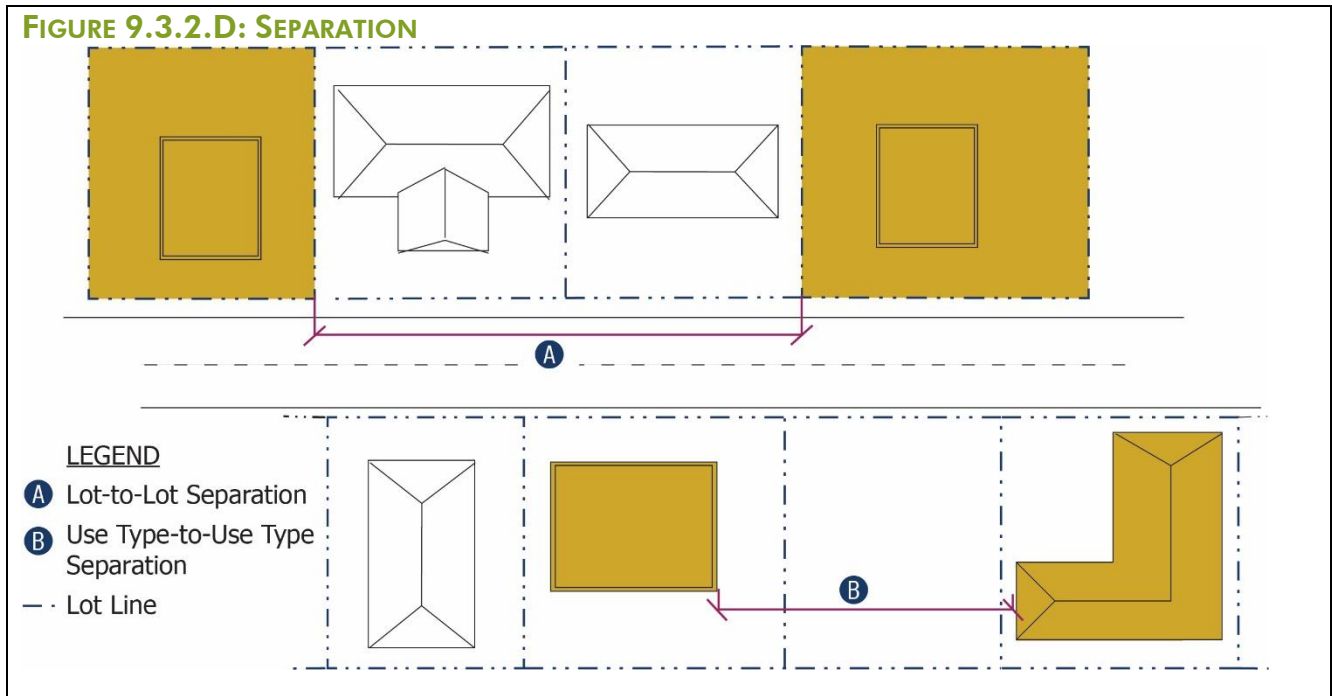

D. SEPARATION

1. LOT TO LOT

When the provisions of this Ordinance require separation between two or more lots, or a lot and another feature, separation shall be measured by drawing straight lines from the nearest point of one lot line to the nearest point of the lot line subject to the separation requirement (see Figure 9.3.2.D: Separation).

2. USE TYPE TO USE TYPE

When the provisions of this Ordinance require one use type to be separated from another use type, separation shall be measured by drawing straight lines from the nearest point of the wall of one existing or proposed principal structure to the nearest point of the wall of another existing or proposed structure subject to the separation requirement.

E. ABUTTING VERSUS ADJACENT

1. ABUTTING

The term abutting describes a condition where two or more features (a lot line, building, driveway, etc.) are immediately beside or next to one another either on the same lot or on different lots sharing a common lot line.

2. ADJACENT

The term adjacent describes a condition where two or more similar features (a lot line, building, use type, structure, site feature, etc.) are proximate to one another, but are separated by some form of intervening feature, such as a street, alley, water feature, railroad, lot or property under separate ownership, or natural feature of sufficient size so as to prevent direct site or impede the movement of sound from one feature to another.

B. LOT LINES

A lot line is a line of record bounding a lot which separates one lot from another lot or separates that lot from a public or private street or any other public space (see Figure 9.3.3.B: Lot Lines). The following terms describe differing types of lot lines:

1. FRONT LOT LINE

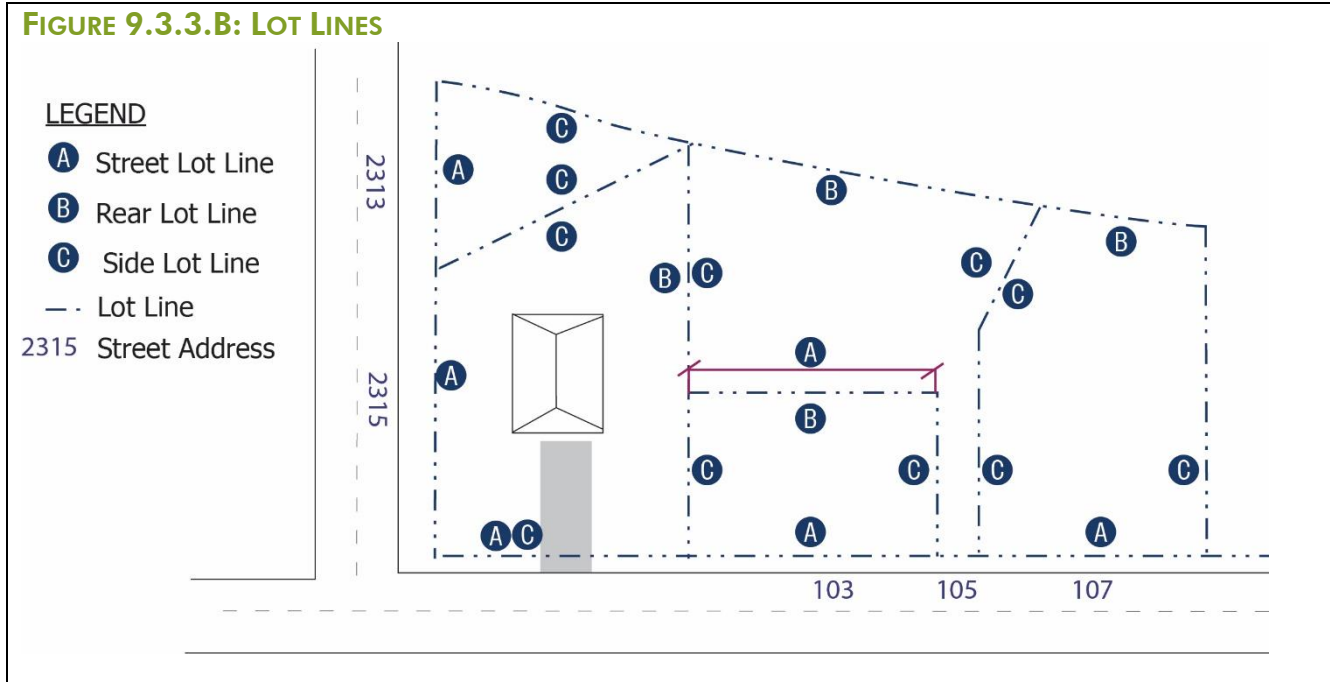

The lot line connecting the two side lot lines along the edge of the street that provides a lot’s street address or that opposes the primary entrance of a building.

2. REAR LOT LINE

The lot line opposite and most distant from the front lot line.

3. SIDE LOT LINE

The lot line connecting the front and rear lot lines regardless of whether it abuts a right-of-way or another lot line.

C. LOT TYPES

1. CORNER LOT

A lot which occupies the interior angle at the intersection of two street lines or a single street which make(s) an angle of more than 45 degrees and less than 135 degrees. The front of the lot is the lot line adjacent to the street from which the lot obtains its street address.

9.3.6. RESIDENTIAL DENSITY

Residential density is the maximum allowable number of residential dwelling units permitted on a particular site, tract, lot, or other unit of land area, typically expressed as a maximum number of residential units per acre.

A. CALCULATION

1. Maximum residential density is calculated by dividing the square footage of a lot by the number of square feet in an acre (43,560), then multiplying the maximum number dwelling units allowed in the zoning district, and rounding the product downwards to remove any fractions.

Example:

Lot size: 52,000 square feet / 43,560 = 1.19 acres.

Zoning district maximum density is 1.08 units per acre: 1.19 x 1.08 = 1.28.

Maximum number of residential units = 1 (fractions are rounded downwards).

2. Land area associated with floodplains and riparian buffers may be included in the calculation of the square footage of a tract or site for the purposes of determining the maximum residential density.
3. Land area located within a right-of-way shall not be included in the calculation of allowable density.
4. Maximum residential density in a particular zoning district may be increased beyond the amount stated in Article 3: Districts, in accordance with the standards in Section 5.12, Sustainability Incentives.

B. DENSITY EQUIVALENCE

1. Accessory dwelling units associated with a single-family residential principal use shall not be counted towards the maximum allowable residential density.
2. When calculating the density for a private dormitory associated with an educational use, two bedrooms in a private dormitory shall be equivalent to one regular dwelling unit.
3. Maximum density amounts do not apply to student housing or lodging on college or university campuses when the housing is owned or operated by the college or university. In these instances, residential land uses are considered as an accessory to the college or university principal use.

9.3.11. PARKING SPACE COMPUTATION

A. ROUNDING

When computation of the number of required parking spaces results in a fraction, the fraction shall be rounded downwards to the previous whole number.

B. MULTIPLE AND MIXED USES

Unless otherwise approved, development containing more than one principal use shall provide off-street parking in an amount equal to the total requirements of all individual uses, unless the Planning Director determines that a lower standard would be adequate because of differences in peak operating hours.

C. SEAT BASED STANDARDS

Where the minimum number of off-street parking spaces is based on the number of seats, all computations shall be based on the number of seats provided, including outdoor and waiting areas.

FLOOD PROTECTION AREAS

- (a) Flood Protection Areas are divided into two categories:
 - 1. Flood Protection Zone 1; and
 - 2. Flood Protection Zone 2, as described below.
- (b) 1. Flood Protection Zone 1
 Zone 1 is the full extent of the FEMA 100-year floodplain as determined by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, North Carolina Division of Water Quality, or USGS 7.5-minute topography maps and shall remain undisturbed. Flood Protection Zone 1 is the most dynamic and hazardous zone, carrying debris and other projectiles during times of flooding. No new development is permitted within Flood Protection Zone 1 except for stream bank or shoreline restoration or stabilization, water dependent structures, and public or private projects such as road crossings and installations, utility crossings and installations, and greenways, where no practical alternatives exist. Flood Protection Zone 1 shall remain undisturbed in its entirety except for exempted activities described herein.
- 2. Flood Protection Zone 2
 Zone 2 shall be a minimum of 50 feet landward of all sides of perennial and intermittent surface waters, streams, lakes, and ponds as determined by the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, North Carolina Division of Water Quality, or USGS 7.5-minute topography maps and shall remain undisturbed. A surface water shall be determined present if the feature is approximately shown on either the most recent version of the soil survey map prepared by the Natural Resources Conservation Service of the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) or the most recent version of the 1:24,000 scale (7.5 minute) quadrangle topographic maps prepared by the United States Geologic Survey (USGS). An exception to this requirement may be allowed when surface waters are not present in accordance with the provisions of 15A NCAC 2B .0233(3)(a) or similar site-specific determination made using division-approved methodology. Disturbance of existing vegetation shall be minimized to the greatest extent possible except for the installation of artificial stream bank or shoreline stabilization, water dependent structures and public or private projects such as utility service lines, road crossings or greenways where no practical alternatives exists. No new impervious surface or regular maintenance (e.g., mowing) of vegetation can occur in Zone 2.
